II.—Dismissal of dafadars and chaukidars.

3. III.—Discipline of dafadars and chaukidars.

5. The board shall, subject to the control of the district magistrate, allocate to each chaukidar a reasonable beat and, if there is more than one dafadar, determine the dafadar under whom he shall serve ; a dafadar's beat embraces the beats of the chaukidars placed under him.

6. The board may, with the sanction of the district magistrate, require dafadars and chaukidars to appear at muster parades at the board's office at regular intervals. Such parades shall not be held more than once a fortnight. The board shall keep a record of attendance at such parades.

7. The board at a meeting may formally censure or reprimand a dafadar or chaukidar by way of punishment.

8. When the board fines a dafadar or chaukidar it shall do so at a meeting ; and shall record a proceeding giving details of the misconduct or neglect complained of, the explanation of the defendant, and the amount of fine imposed.

9. When the district magistrate fines a dafadar or chaukidar, he shall record a proceeding and send a copy of it to the board through the circle officer.

10. When the board at a meeting considers that a dafadar or chaukidar should be fined more than a quarter of one month's salary, it shall follow the procedure in rule 3 and submit the proceedings to the circle officer, who will forward it to the district magistrate with his comments.

11. The board at a meeting may recommend to the district magistrate the withdrawal from a dafadar or chaukidar of good conduct badges or stripes. Such recommendation shall be accompanied by the full report referred to in rule 10, and shall be submitted to the circle officer, who will forward it to the district magistrate with his comments.

12. The district magistrate may suspend any dafadar or chaukidar against whom the board has drawn up proceedings or in respect of whom he himself has initiated proceedings. Such suspensions shall be reported to the board, and the board shall thereupon make arrangements for a substitute.

13. The board at a meeting may recommend rewards of the following kinds:—

(a) rewards in cash;
(b) rewards in the form of good conduct stripes or badges;
(c) gratuities on retirement.

14. (a) particulars of the work for which a reward is recommended;
(b) particulars of the reward recommended; and
(c) the previous rewards and punishments of the dafadar or chaukidar in question.

15. When he sanctions a reward to a dafadar or chaukidar, the district magistrate shall record an order and forward a copy thereof to the board. Arrangements shall be made for the payment or grant of the reward at the earliest possible pay parade held after the said sanction.

16. Cash rewards and the cost of good conduct stripes or badges shall be paid out of the district chaukidari reward fund.

IV.—Payment of salaries and rewards to dafadars and chaukidars and realisation of fines.

17. Dafadars and chaukidars shall be paid, at regular intervals to be prescribed by the district magistrate, the pay due to them to the end of the preceding month. The dates of pay parades shall be fixed by the district magistrate and communicated by him to the board. These matters shall be determined by the district magistrate after consideration of the views of the board.

18. The board shall cause to be prepared before each date fixed for payment a register in form C showing the names of dafadars and chaukidars to be paid, the rate and amount of salary due to each, the period for which payment is to be made, and the amount of fine, if any, to be deducted from the salary of each.

19. Upon the date fixed all dafadars and chaukidars shall attend the board's office, and the president shall arrange for the distribution of their pay to them there.

20. The pay parade shall be conducted by the president of the board or, when he is incapable of conducting it, by any other member of the board, hereinafter referred to as the presiding member, deputed by the president in this behalf.

21. The presiding member shall in the first place ascertain whether any salary is owing to any dafadar or chaukidar for the period preceding that under payment, and shall first pay off any such salary which he finds to be due. Having done this, he shall then proceed to make payment for the current period.

22 All payments shall be made in cash and in full; and no payment shall be made to any payee for less than the sum due to him in respect of the period for which salaries are being paid. No admission of a payee of having received any pay in advance shall be accepted.

23. The amount of fine due from a dafadar or chaukidar shall be realised from him by the presiding member immediately after the payment of the salary due to him. No fine shall be realised otherwise than at the time of payment of salary.

24. All payments (less the amount of fine realised) and all realisations of fine shall be noted in the acquittance rolls of the payees, which shall be kept in form D, and shall be then and there signed and dated by the presiding member.

25. All such payments and realisations shall likewise be entered then and there by the presiding member in the board's payment register in form C.

26. If any dafadar or chaukidar is not paid, the fact and the grounds for non-payment shall be noted against his name in the remarks column of the payment register by the presiding member.

27. If any dafadar or chaukidar is absent from the pay parade, the amount due to him shall be kept in deposit in the board's office and paid to him in the presence of a member of the board on the first convenient opportunity. That member shall attest the payment in the payee's acquittance roll and in the payment register.

28. After paying their salaries to all the dafadars and chaukidars present, the presiding member shall distribute any rewards which have been sent to the board for distribution.

29. As soon as the pay parade is over, the board shall send to the nearest treasury for credit to the district chaukidari reward fund the total amount realised as fine accompanied by a chalan in triplicate for the sum total of the fines realised, upon which shall be endorsed the details of the realizations made. Of the two copies of the chalan which will be returned by the treasury, one copy shall be forwarded to the circle officer and one filed in the board's office.

30. As soon as the pay parade is over, the board shall send to the circle officer a report of the proceedings in form E.

V.—Payment of cost of equipment of dafadars and chaukidars.

31. The annual cost of equipment for dafadars and chaukidars (including conveyance charges for the same) shall be fixed by the district magistrate after consideration of the views of the board.

32. The circle officer shall send to the board a fortnight before the last pay parade in the first quarter a statement in form F.

33. The board shall pay the cost of equipment of chaukidars and dafadars to the circle officer in quarterly instalments. All such payments shall be in full in respect of every dafadar or chaukidar without exception. They shall be made not later than the day following the last pay parade in each quarter. The circle officer shall grant receipts for the same to the board in form G.

34. The circle officer, when he receives a consignment of equipment, shall forward it to the board concerned with an invoice in form H, in which Part I shall be filled up and signed by the circle officer and the board shall distribute the equipment at the next pay parade. When distribution has been completed, the union board shall fill up Part II and return the invoice (form H) to the circle officer.

35. Each dafadar and chaukidar shall receive from the board, on his appointment, a vernacular copy of instructions explaining his powers and duties.

36. The duties of the chaukidar shall include the following :—

(d) he shall to the best of his ability assist the police in the execution of their duties, and shall carry out all lawful orders issued by the police in their execution of such duties ;

(e) if unable, owing to sickness or for any other sufficient reason, to perform any of his duties, he shall immediately report the fact to the dafadar under whom he is serving.

37. A chaukidar shall not be taken away from his beat for miscellaneous or other work except in cases of special urgency or when he is required to guard or escort a prisoner. His employment by the police, by the board, by any member of the board or by any other authority as a private servant or in a menial capacity is strictly forbidden.

(c) if so required by the district magistrate he shall keep a diary in the following form :—

Date.	Villages visited.	Remarks.—Movements of strangers, bad characters, etc.

and shall submit this diary to the officer in charge of the police-station whenever such officer calls for it;

(d) he shall periodically patrol the villages of the union or of his beat both by night and by day;

(e) he shall be responsible for seeing that the chaukidars subordinate to him perform their duties properly, and shall explain any negligence of duty on their part which he may reasonably have been expected to check;

(f) he shall pay surprise visits to at least two of the chaukidars' beats on at least four nights during the week, and shall see that the chaukidars are alert and performing their duties;

(g) he shall attend all muster parades whether at the police-station or at the board's office. He shall there report all cases of misconduct in chaukidars subordinate to him, explain the causes of absence of any chaukidar who is absent, and see that all those present are dressed in proper uniform;

(h) when a chaukidar subordinate to him is unable on account of sickness or other sufficient reason to perform his duties, he shall inform the board promptly and shall see that a substitute is appointed;

(i) he shall be specially responsible for reporting to the police the information referred to in sub-sections (iv), (v), (vi) and (viii) of section 23 (1) of the Act, viz. :—

(j) he shall be specially diligent in the arresting of absconders and in obtaining for the police all available information regarding them.

39. A dafadar shall not ordinarily be employed on work which would carry him outside the union to which he belongs or outside the beat to which, if he be one of several dafadars, he has been allotted.

VII.—Service of processes by dafadars and chaukidars.

40. Dafadars and chaukidars shall serve processes issued by union benches and union courts in accordance with rules issued under section 101 (2) (r). They shall also serve the following processes :—

41. Processes to be served by dafadars or chaukidars shall be sent direct to the president of the board. The president shall determine by which dafadar or chaukidar each process shall be served, and shall endorse upon each the name of the dafadar or chaukidar who is to serve it. The president shall make over to the dafadar the processes to be served by him as well as those to be served by chaukidars under him ; and the dafadar shall make over to the chaukidars those which they are to serve. Where there are special circumstances, such as exceptional gradients and the compulsory use of wood paving, etc., tending to show that the car mileage does not fairly represent the wear and tear of the track, each such case is entitled to special consideration.

Cost of renewals including setts or other paving but excluding concrete foundations should be taken at £4,400* per mile of single track until the general renewal of the track takes place and the allowance for depreciation should be computed at such a sum per annum as will, in the aggregate over the determined life of the permanent way, be equal to the cost of renewal as above fixed.

* Provisional.

Cars and other Rolling Stock.—All maintenance of car bodies should be charged direct to revenue.

Depreciation on the cost of car trucks and electrical motors should be allowed at 7 per cent. per annum.
